

ABOUT ME

NAME: kelsey lehr

OCCUPATION: student/designer/pharmacy technician

HOME: small town USA (born and raised)

BIO:

I'm that girl who's a little bit tom-boy with a dash of sparkle. I'm all about being outdoors (but ALSO love decompressing indoors with sweatpants and netflix).

I'm a combination country girl who has tried city living and found it less than spectacular. I enjoy personal connections and people's life-stories..

Id eat mac n' cheese any day of the week if I could. I wish fall would always last longer. I value friendship, family, and geunine people. I'm dedicated, passionate, and a tad wonky. My design style takes inspiration from natural color palettes and warm tones. I've done work in several mediums but digital and graphite are my favoritie areas to work in.
